Tree No 21 Neath Port Talbot Countryside and Wildlife Team Source to Sea in NPT. This tree tells the story of the habitats of Neath Port Talbot—from the upland hills, through woodlands, farmland, wetlands, and urban spaces, all the way to the estuary and sea. It showcases the rich mosaic of habitats, each home to unique wildlife and vital to the health of our ecosystems. The "Source to Sea" theme reminds us that nature is deeply connected: what happens in the uplands affects the lowlands, and the choices we make inland ripple all the way to the coast. This tree is a celebration of the landscapes that shape our county and the species that call them home. It's also a call to protect and restore these habitats for wildlife, for people, and for future generations. Find out more at naturenpt.cymru/how-can-you-help
